

MPA Engineering's Services consists of nine divisions:

- Switchboard manufacture
- Electrical Installation
- Control Systems Engineering
- Electrical Engineering
- Service and Breakdown Support
- Thermal Imaging
- PLC Service and Drive Sales
- RPEQ Certification
- HA Certification

MPA Engineering boasts a highly experienced team of professional engineers who are able to design, install and commission industrial automation and process control systems for a diverse range of high profile Australian manufacturers.

MPA are experts in electrical consulting and project management; factory automation; water and sewerage control; PLC-based control systems; PLC servicing; SCADA systems; switchboard design; basic and general software programming; weigh batching systems; power station and standby power systems; and hazardous area systems.